

Poppin's Quilt Parlour

Class List – Fall 2011

Come Play With Us!

Take a look through our Fall class offerings – we have a number of classes that have been scheduled “as requested” by you!

We are excited that our instructors are designing original works to share with you! Check out listings for Diana Bartelings and Val Wojtula to see what they have come up with.

Liz Faminoff is unveiling a new project this session – the Eagle. “Daily Catch” is also a special request by a student in a previous class with Liz!

Demo Days. One Monday a month, we’ll take an hour or so to share with you. Tools, techniques, new or old favourites, this is a way for you to see how a product works, or what a technique entails – before diving in with a whole project. Check the class listing for dates & times.

We are taking registration now – each class has only 8 seats so don’t wait too long or you may be disappointed. The full details (with photos) are on our website, but here’s the scoop:
